THE ANTS AND THE GRASSHOPPER
Documentary | Raj Patel, Zak Piper | USA, UK, Malawi | 74 min
Anita Chitaya faces her greatest challenge: persuading Americans that climate change is real. Traveling from Malawi to California to the White House, she meets climate sceptics and despairing farmers.

DAUGHTER OF A LOST BIRD
Documentary | Brooke Peplon Sweeney | USA | 66 min
The film follows a Native woman adopted into a white family, as she reconnects with her Native identity. The film, both instigator and follower, documents Kendra on this odyssey as she finds her birth mother, also a Native adoptee.

FAYA DAYI
Documentary | Jessica Beshir | Ethiopia | 120 min
In her hypnotic documentary feature, Ethiopian-Mexican filmmaker Jessica Beshir explores the coexistence of everyday life and its mythical undercurrents.

GOLDEN VOICES
Narrative | Evgeny Ruman | Israel | 88 min
Victor and Raya Frenkel were the golden voices of Soviet film dubbing. In 1990, with the collapse of USSR, they decide to immigrate to Israel, where their talents find new uses.

HIVE
Narrative | Blerta Basholli | Kosovo, Switzerland, Macedonia, Albania | 84 min
Sundance triple award winner HIVE is a searing drama based on the true story of Fahrije, who has lived with fading hope since her husband went missing during the war in Kosovo.

LITTLE GIRL
Documentary | Sebastien Lifshitz | France | 85 min
LITTLE GIRL is the moving portrait of 7-year-old Sasha, who has always known that she is a girl. Sasha's family embraces their daughter for who she truly is while working to confront outdated norms and find affirmation in a small community of rural France.

LUZZU
Narrative | Alex Camilleri | Malta | 94 min
Jesmark, a Maltese fisherman, contends with a newfound leak in his wooden LUZZU boat. Desperate to provide for his wife and their newborn son, Jesmark gradually slips into an illicit black-market fishing operation.

MADLY IN LIFE
Narrative | Ann Sirot and Raphael Balboni | Belgium | 87 min
Alex and Noémie, both in their thirties, want a child. But their plans are upset when Alex's mother, Suzanne, starts acting rather bizarrely.

MOGUL MOWGLI
Narrative | Bassam Tariq | United Kingdom | 90 min
MOGUL MOWGLI is the debut feature from award-winning documentary filmmaker Bassam Tariq. It follows the story of a British Pakistani rapper (Academy Award-nominated actor Riz Ahmed) who is struck down by an illness.

NINJABABY
Narrative | Yngvild Sve Flikke | Norway | 104 min
When Raket (23), way too late, finds out she's six months pregnant after a not-so-romantic one-night stand. That's when Ninjababy, an animated character who insists on making Raket's everyday life a living hell, turns up.

ROARING 20'S
Narrative | Elisabeth Vogler | France | 90 min
On one beautiful afternoon in Paris during the surreal summer of 2020, 24 different characters roam the streets of the city with a sense of giddy abandon after a spring of lockdown and confinement. The film was shot in one unbroken 90-minute take.

STATELESS
Documentary | Michèle Stephenson | Dominican Republic | 95 min
In 2013, Dominicans of Haitian descent were stripped of their citizenship. Director Michèle Stephenson's documentary follows the grassroots campaign of Rosa Iris, as she challenges electoral corruption and fights to protect the right to citizenship for all people.

TORN with WAY TO GO!
Documentary | Max Lowe | USA | 92 min
On Oct. 5, 1999, legendary climber Alex Lowe was tragically lost in a deadly avalanche on the slopes of the Tibetan mountain, Shishapangma. Miraculously surviving the avalanche was Alex's best friend and climbing partner, Conrad Anker. After the tragedy, Anker and Alex's widow fell in love and married, and Anker stepped in to help raise Alex's three sons. Preceded by WAY TO GO!, Kathy Roselli's 9-minute documentary about the composting toilet at the top of Mount Shasta.
